

Outplacement Programs

Career Transition Services Include:

- One-on-One Job Search Support
- Group Job Search Workshops
- Executive Support
- Virtual Coaching Support

Why Provide Outplacement Support?

- Improves the organization's internal and external image.
- Helps reduce litigation.
- Reduces stress on managers responsible for implementing organizational change.
- Provides a good return on investment.
- Improves the morale of retained employees.

What We Do

Looking for a way to help your employees who are affected by staff reductions and downsizing?

Job Search Strategies provides personalized and practical outplacement services for people who are in a career transition. We cater to small and mid-sized companies and organizations who wish to provide resources to bridge employees to their next position by offering a wide range of options for individual coaching, group workshops, and for those at a distance.

Program components range from helping candidates to assess their direction, develop their résumé and marketing correspondence, and construct a targeted search strategy, to providing research and networking resources as well as interviewing preparation.

Whether local or at a distance, we offer customized programs as required and can work with you to determine and understand your goals and what you want to accomplish, then design a solution that meets your needs and your budgetary requirements.

(704) 234-6722

Info@JobSearchStrategies.net

Why Choose Us?

▶ Experience

With over 30 years in human resources and executive search, we fully understand the hiring process and what it takes to get noticed by hiring managers and recruiters.

▶ Resources

Because of our understanding of recruitment research, we have the right kind of in-depth resources to unearth the "hidden" job market.

▶ Value

We provide solutions to meet your needs and your budgetary requirements.

▶ Passion

We are enthusiastic about helping our job candidates assess their situation, set meaningful, realistic goals, and successfully arrive at their new destination.

Helping Build Your Future.

Most organizations who use outplacement and career transition services report improvements in their organization's image, productivity, profit stability, and staff morale.

Done with professionalism and dignity, outplacement provides the resources and an environment for employees in transition to secure new employment, and wise organizations realize that a relatively small investment in outplacement makes sound business sense.

Call us to confidentially discuss your needs.

Job Search Strategies
124 Unionville-Indian Trail Road
Suite B-2
Indian Trail, NC 28079

(704) 234-6722
info@JobSearchStrategies.net

Visit us at:
www.JobSearchStrategies.net

Career Transition Services

One-on-One Job Search Support

One-on-One Job Search support provides a very personal level of support to those facing career change or those in transition. Individuals receive personal support on a one-on-one basis.

Group Job Search Workshops

Group job search workshops combine workshop modules with professional consultant support.

port. Topics cover key areas of job search including developing a plan, networking, tapping into the hidden job market, resume preparation, and interview techniques, along with time for questions and personal application

Executive Support

Executive job search support is targeted at senior managers and executives. It offers a high level of personally tailored support and a flexible package of benefits.

Virtual Coaching Support

Support for those who are at a distance where "in-person" one-on-one support is not feasible and group workshops aren't practical. Job Search Strategies offers a comprehensive level of personal support using a combination of telephone and e-mail support.

Contact us today for more information.