

Revise Your Resume and Cover Letter

Read carefully what employers are looking for and customize your resume and cover letter to include their key words.

Don't despair. Remember: The best of resumes sometimes do not bring immediate employer responses.

Most important, tell your story with a cover letter and resume that reflect your values and developing skills.